White Pass Scenic Railway: Adult Pricing From $119

No trip to Alaska is complete without a ride on the White Pass and Yukon Route narrow-gauge railroad that served the mad rush to the Klondike in 1898. You'll board an old-fashioned parlor car for a 40-mile round trip. A panorama of wilderness unfolds, as you leave Skagway and pass through two tunnels, sky-high trestles, and remote valleys. Outside your large picture window, view Bridal Veil Falls, Inspiration Point and Dead Horse Gulch. Your guide will announce all points of interest and tell the unique story of this railway. After reaching White Pass Summit, the international boundary between Canada and the U.S., you'll begin your return journey down the White Pass & Yukon Route.

Note: The 4:30 pm departure of this tour is referred to as the 'White Pass Evening Summit'.

Historical City Tour & Salmon Bake: Adult Pricing From $69

Tour historic Skagway, as your guide points out places of interest and amuses you with tales of the famous and foolhardy. Wind through streets lined with wooden boardwalks and false-fronted buildings en route to a Gold Rush Trail Camp re-created on the very spot where it stood a century ago. At Liarsville, you'll dine on freshly grilled filet of Alaskan Salmon, baked chicken, rice pilaf, and a variety of salads, baked beans, corn bread, coffee, lemonade, and dessert. Wander through the camp and visit the general store, saloon, and bordello and laundry tents to view the antiques and vintage clothing left behind and have your picture taken with one of the dance hall girls or the camp mascot, a loveable freight husky.
